

those residents celebrating the Ragan centennial. That will be laid over, Mr. President. (LR 38 is found on page 810 of the Legislative Journal.)

Notice of hearing from the Natural Resources Committee. That is signed by Senator Schmit. And notice of hearing from Judiciary. That is signed by Senator Chizek.

And, Mr. President, Senator Vard Johnson would like to withdraw LB 728. That will be laid over.

And, Mr. President, I have amendments to be printed from Senators Wesely and Marsh to LB 491. (See page 811 of the Journal.) That's all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. I would like to acknowledge a group in the gallery this morning, a group of visitors, about 20 of them, from the Association of Nebraska Community Action Agencies. They are in town for a state meeting and to acknowledge Community Action Month. Ward Schrack is their director. Would you people please stand and be recognized by your Legislature. Thank you very much for visiting your Legislature. Next item, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senators Wesely, Miller and Lynch would move that LB 392 become law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. Those three members offered that motion on February 23. It is found on page 779 of the Journal.

SPEAKER BARRETT: On the motion to override, the Chair recognizes Senator Miller.

SENATOR MILLER: Mr. Speaker and members, I bring this motion to override the Governor's veto to the members of the body because I think it is the majority of the members of the body desire to have 392 become law. If you remember, on Final Reading we had 33 votes, enough to enact the emergency clause. I would also like to point out that you should take an opportunity to look at the Governor's cover letter with her veto which is found on page 751 in the Journal. In that letter she makes two references. One is that she was not convinced that the members of the Legislature understood that 23 offices would be closed under this bill. We will reiterate again that there were 46 offices scheduled to be closed. The present administration of the Social Service Department came back with an alternate plan that was going to keep 23 of those 46 offices open, either
